"BATTLE BORN" LP/CD

"Battle Born" is the debut full-length from Scurvy Bastards, who began in 1999 as an impromptu "all are welcome" party-crashing experience in Carson City, Nevada. They foiled other peoples' drinking attempts with "sea-shanties" played on accordion, a banjo, pots, pans, guitars. All this and a growling Cap'n. Eventually, the switch was made to incorporate a rhythm section, and song arrangements came together shortly thereafter. Their first public offerings were songs contributed to lo-fi cd-r compilations, and then a track for the Sedition Label's "Reno: Where Dreams Come to Die" vinyl/cd release alongside Iron Lung, This Computer Kills, and The Shook-ups.

The Bastards' debut single, the "Polaris" 7", was released in the summer of 2002 on Slovenly Recordings and is now out-of-print.

To date, Scurvy Bastards have played shows extensively in the western U.S., Opening up shows for Pere Ubu and Wesley Willis, among others. Their first full U.S. Tour will begin in April 2003.

RIYL: THE POGUES, (Rough Trade-era) CAMPER VAN BEETHOVEN, SWINGIN' UTTERS.
